

MAN WANTS $5000

Another Libel Against the S. S. City of Columbia.

Man Who Had the Bar Privilege—A Hearing On—Supreme Court Incidents—Honored Callers.

In the matter of the estate of the late H. Reimenschneider, W. O. Smith, administrator, has filed his account, charging $2,150.25 and crediting $2,214. A petition for discharge is also filed. George R. Carter has filed an inventory of the estate of the late E. A. Jones, showing assets $60,845.85 and liabilities $1,750, leaving a balance of $59,095.85.

First Lieut. Frank S. Brittain, of the United States Engineers at Camp McKinley, has been admitted to practice law in the courts of Hawaii. Prior to coming to Honolulu he was a member of the law firm of Shortridge, Beatty & Shortridge, San Francisco. Lieut. Brittain is a native of Philadelphia. He is an army judge advocate.

Cecil Brown sat on the Supreme Court bench yesterday in place of Justice Frear. The case of Kaimama vs. J. H. Kaumana, malicious prosecution, was argued.

About 3:30 yesterday afternoon Senator Cullom, Mr. Hitt, President Dole and Justice Frear, of the Commission, visited the Supreme Court in a body. The Court took a recess of five minutes to meet the visitors. Senator Cullom had quite a long informal chat with the Chief Justice.

Russell Colegrove was on the witness stand in Judge Perry's court all of yesterday in his damage case against Capt. Milnor of the steamer Columbia. He gave the particulars of his trouble with the master on the voyage from Tacoma to Honolulu. As several other witnesses are to be called the case will probably be on the remainder of the week.

There was a coincidence in Supreme Court yesterday which was noted by several. Three ex-Attorneys General of Hawaii were on the bench in the persons of Justices Judd, Whiting and Cecil Brown. Ex-Attorney General Creighton presented the case and it was defended by Deputy Attorney General Dole for the Attorney General's department.

Another libel was filed late yesterday against the steamer Columbia. H. Johnston is the complainant and he wants $2,000 damages. In his petition Johnston alleges that he purchased in Seattle the privilege of supplying liquor on board the Columbia during her voyage. On the way down and since arrival of the vessel in port the bar has been at divers times closed by orders of Capt. Milnor, as the result of which petitioner has suffered "irreparable loss," etc. This attachment against the Columbia, which is the fourth, was issued last night. Magoon and McClanahan are attorneys for petitioner.

ALGAROBIA.

A New York Paper on Value of an Island Tree.

The N. Y. Sun in an article titled "Fodder in tree tops," gives some account of the algarobia (kialoa):

"Friends of the French mission were the introducers, they having become acquainted with its value in Algeria. As its name shows, it is the Carob tree of the 'Arabian Nights,' the source of most people's knowledge of things Arabic. The tree grows most luxuriantly in most Hawaiian soils and bears continuously the year around. This is a matter of particular importance, for it is the fruit which is of value. The tree grows to the height of twenty feet, and the branches are luxuriantly so as to shade a considerable area, and, as the leaves are both abundant and large, there is formed a protection against the heat which stock appreciate. The fruit is a large fleshy pod filled with beans the size of a horse chestnut. It is upon the pods and the beans which grow over a large portion of Texas and Mexico. The beans are used for human food especially in Mexico."

Banana Flour.

(New York Post.)

The next dietetic fad is going to be banana flour. Manufacturers are experimenting in this direction, and promise soon a meal that will keep as long as wheat flour and make a much more nutritious bread. As already the craze for whole-wheat flour is passing, this new alibum will undoubtedly meet a quick welcome when it comes. The use of the banana has developed its great value as an article of food, and the great army of banana consumers are preparing to accept eagerly its further development.

A Last Request.

(Chicago News.)

He—"And am I to understand that your refusal is final?"
She—"It is."
He—"Then life no longer has a charm for me; I shall hang myself."
She—"Will you grant me a favor?"
He—"Certainly; name it."
She—"Discontinue your existence elsewhere; papa objects to your hanging around here."
